Appeal and Waiver Procedures

1. A student seeking to waive or appeal the unit limitation on enrollment in non-degree applicable basic skills courses shall submit a Remedial Coursework "Waiver" Petition to a Delta College Counselor. The Counselor shall meet with the student to review their educational records and develop an academic educational plan for the next semester. The counselor or student shall provide the Remedial Coursework "Waiver" Petition and the student's educational plan to the Director of Admissions & Records for review.
2. The student shall sign a form acknowledging his/her knowledge of the limitations of the waiver.
3. Permission to waive the 30-unit limit will allow the student to enroll in basic skills courses for a period not to exceed one semester and for a maximum of 10 basic skills units.
4. Once a waiver is approved, the student will be allowed to register in basic skills classes up to the maximum unit limit approved.
 - a. If the waiver is denied, the Counselor shall refer the student to appropriate adult education programs.
5. A student whose waiver was previously denied, may start the process at step 1 above for reinstatement upon the successful completion of coursework, adult education program, and/or appropriate scores on the Delta College COMPASS Assessment test. In addition, a Delta College Counselor recommendation for approval on the Remedial Coursework "Waiver" Petition is required.
