

TOOLS TO SUCCEED WORKSHOP SERIES

FALL 2011

Hosted by:

San Joaquin Delta College CalWORKs Program

TEST-TAKING WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2011

Taking tests can be an overwhelming experience. Join us and learn various test taking strategies and techniques. In addition, learn which type of test taker you are: The Rusher, The Turtle, The Personalizer, The Second Guesser, The Philosopher, or The Squisher!

Presenter: Hannah Abramson, Tutor, Reading and Writing Learning Center, San Joaquin Delta College

REACHING YOUR POTENTIAL WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2011

The ultimate pinnacle for reaching one's full potential is by achieving personal mastery over your life. When you achieve this, you have a thorough understanding of yourself, the ability to reframe your thoughts when necessary, realistic and achievable goals, and a vision of the future. This workshop will provide an overview of basic life management skills, and where to find more resources to help you develop these skills.

Presenter: Shelia Johnson, Counselor, San Joaquin Delta College

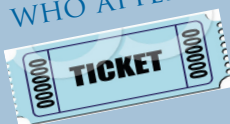

HOLIDAY BUDGETING SURVIVAL SKILLS WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2011

Help restore the joy of the holidays for the whole family by learning timesaving tips, inexpensive gift ideas, along with the basics of creating and maintaining a spending plan.

Presenter: Susan Rollin-Rudd, Financial Specialist, Clear Point Credit Counseling Solutions
