

Learning Disabilities Program

CUNN 236 & 237 954-5805

Myth: Learning Disabled people are just slow.

Reality: A LEARNING DISABILITY IS ...a permanent disorder which affects the manner which students with normal or above average intelligence take in, retain, and express information.

LD / DSPS Services available:

- Student Orientation
- Diagnostic Assessment
- Academic Counseling
- Individual Education Plans
- Liaison with faculty
- Liaison with community agencies
- Assistance with: Book Reports - Proofreading
- Test proctoring
- Individual tutoring for academic classes
- Note taking Assistance

Do you have trouble Remembering what you read?
.....putting thoughts into writing?
.....knowing the material but not being able to test well?

Admission and Assistance

Testing is free. All that is required is the completion of an intake, assessment of intellectual ability and basic academic skill levels, and an interpretation of test results. It is during the interpretation meeting the students' strengths and weaknesses are discussed and program eligibility is reviewed.

Stop by the LD Program, and let us answer your questions.....

Staff: Jan Bailey & Virginia Kirschenman
LD Lab CUNN 237 – 954-5805
LD Office CUNN 236 – 954-5378

Faculty: Dr. Kirkwood (Adjunct)
Josie Malik (Adjunct)
Kevin Smith (Adjunct)