Testing Process:

Candidates will be allowed to take the written examination after providing a valid picture ID. Each candidate will be taking the multiple-choice POST Entry Level Law Enforcement Test Battery examination, which will test the candidate's ability to read and write at the levels necessary to perform the job of a peace officer.

Before an examinee can retest, he/she must wait for a period of 1 month. Testing more than once per month is not allowed, (one month constitutes 30 days) if you have already taken the PELLETB in the month of April after April 11 at another testing agency or at Delta, POST will invalidate the second test administration T-score.

- ◆ To help prepare for the POST Entry Level Law Enforcement examination, you can access the following web page and Download a sample of the POST Entry-Level Test Battery:
- ◆ There are other many helpful tools available to help you prepare for this exam: A police test preparation web site www.PoliceQuiz.com: Examination textbooks may be purchased at many bookstores and are also available at Public Libraries: ARCO Police Officer; Police Officer Exam California: The Complete Preparation Guide; A Civil Service Clerical exam covering reading comprehension, vocabulary, spelling, and sentence structure. It is also recommended that you practice writing a Police Report.

Notification of Test Results

Candidates that qualify to take the examination will be notified of their results in approximately 2 – 4 weeks by mail. DO NOT call the office for your test results as test results will not be given over the phone.

NOTE: Do not lose your test result letter. T-Score result letters WILL NOT be re-issued. If you misplace your T-Score results you must re-take the exam.
