California State University, Stanislaus
Faculty Development Center – Room 118
9:00 am – 1:30 pm
April 30, 2007

“What the HECCC: The Past Accomplishments, Present Synergy, and Future Visions”

The purpose of the conference is to continue dialogue among Consortium Members to (a) Identify and (b) Assess current areas of common interests that are beneficial to serving students. Building on a history of past collaboration among participating institutions, these discussions should also help revitalize the initial HECCC objectives by providing direction for future partnerships.
