Disruptive Student Behavior

Marc Bromme
Joint Meeting
Student Services Managers and Division Deans

- Students’ Demeanor-Lack of Respect, Inappropriate Language, Aggression, Graffiti, Etc.
- “Be Nice” Campaign
- Strengthen Orientation Component of Appropriate Behavior
- Campus Police and Administrative Support of Faculty
Disruptive Behavior Includes a Range of Actions

- Excessive Talking
- Threatening Language
- Sexual Harassment
- Behavior Based Upon Psychological Pathologies
- Physical Violence
Communication of Unacceptable Behavior

- Verbalize Expectations in Syllabus
- Establish Rules of Conduct
Faculty Intervention: Enforce Rules of Conduct

- Confidential Warnings
- Conference with Student
- Conference with Student and Division Dean
- Suspension for 2 Class Meetings for Good Cause, AP 5500.
- Referral to VP Student Services
- Campus Police Intervention
- Counseling Services
Disciplinary Actions

- Meet with VP Student Services
- Formal Warning
- Probation
- Suspension
- Expulsion
DOCUMENTATION
Legal Actions

- Arrest
- Prosecution
- Restraining Order
Input From Faculty to Date

- Move Drop Date Forward (may be problematic)
- Standardize Rules of Conduct for Syllabus for All Faculty
- Provide All Students “Standards of Conduct” Brochure