1:30-3:30

Motivate your students with new and easy to apply strategies. Walk away with strategies you can implement the next day! Get them to read & understand their textbooks in any subject matter.

Carol Pottorff is the Dean of the Department of Behavioral and Social Sciences at American River College in Sacramento. Dean Pottorff is a specialist in reading and prior to becoming Dean of Behavioral and Social Sciences was an active professor in the Department of English where she was Coordinator of the Reading Center and Coordinator of the highly successful Reading Across the Disciplines program that helped students in content area courses with their readings.

This workshop provided with funding from Title V Increasing Hispanic Transfer and Graduation Rates.
