Name _________________________

Textbook Preview
READ 91-D—Wall

Title of textbook: ________________________________________________________________

Year of publication ____________________________________________________________________________________________

Why is this date ↑ important? ____________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________

Look through the Table of Contents.

How many UNITS are in this textbook? _____ How many CHAPTERS? ______

List the title and topic headings for any chapter in the book:

• Chapter title ________________________________________________________________

• Headings (in blue-green print):
  1) ________________________________________________________________
  2) ________________________________________________________________
  3) ________________________________________________________________
  4) ________________________________________________________________
  5) ________________________________________________________________

Look on p. 191. What is a glossary?

__________________________________________________________________________________

On what page does the Index begin? p. _____

If I want to learn about the North American Free Trade Agreement, on what page would I look? _____

Every chapter begins in the same way, with several graphic boxes. List them:

1) ________________________________________________________________
  2) ________________________________________________________________
  3) ________________________________________________________________
  4) ________________________________________________________________
  5) ________________________________________________________________
Each chapter also ends in the same way, with a section entitled “Using What You’ve Learned” and with a “Skill Builder.” What are the four sections under “Using What You’ve Learned”?

1) ________________________________________________
2) ________________________________________________
3) ________________________________________________
4) ________________________________________________

Find one “Skill Builder” that looks interesting to you:

________________________________________________

What chapter looks the most interesting to you? _____

Why do you think it says “Book 1” on the front cover?

__________________________________________________________________________________

Which continents are NOT covered in this textbook? (see map on p. 5)

__________________________________________________________________________________

Now that you have explored it a little, what do you think about our textbook?

PREVIEW of INTRODUCTION (p. 1)

What are the three headings?

1. ________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________

What are three vocabulary words that are new for me?

1. ________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________