THE OFFICIAL VOICE OF THE STUDENTS

HISTORY of Associated Students of Delta College

Prior to 1994 there were two-student government organizations, the Day Student Association and the Evening Student Association. Each association served their respective constituents and collaborated on the selection of the Student Representative to the Board of Trustees.

In 1994 the two organizations merged to form the Associated Student Body Government (ASBG). The merger included the development of new officer positions and responsibilities.

In the early 1970s the Evening Student Association received approval from the Board of Trustees to operate a Flea Market on campus. Eventually the ASBG Flea Market grew to be a very successful fundraiser for the ASBG, generating over $500,000 annually in income by 2010. Up until the fall of 2011 the student government association received revenue from the flea market operation. Proceeds from the flea market operation were used to support various campus programs, student life events, scholarships and the books on reserve program in the Library.

In 2014 the name of the student government association was officially changed to the Associated Students of Delta College (ASDC).
