IN A WORLD DIVIDED INTO US AND THEM, WHO COUNTS AS ONE OF US?

DIVIDED WE FALL
AMERICANS IN THE AFTERMATH

A college student journeys across America in the aftermath of 9/11 uncovering stories of hate violence, fear, and unspeakable loss—until she finds the heart of America halfway around the world. Valerie Kaur’s inspiring exploration of race, religion, and identity during national crisis confronts the wall dividing us from them.

September 11, 2008
11:30am Atherton Auditorium
Free to the Public • Panel Discussion to follow Film
Sponsored by Cultural Awareness Committee