RECLAIMING THE LEGACY

The Labor Movement and the Filipino Immigrant’s Experience in Stockton, California, 1920s-1950s

Saturday, April 9, 2005
11 am to 5 pm
West Forum @
San Joaquin Delta College Campus

Registration fee: Students $5; General Public $10; Delta College Students Free with Student ID

Session 1: Immigration and Settlement
Speakers: Anita Bautista, FANHS; Gladys Ikeda, StocktonSpeaks;
Moderator, Rico Reyes

Session 2: The Filipino Labor Movement in Stockton
Speakers: Dr. Dawn Mabalon, SFSU; Andy Imutan, Activist; Prof. Dan Gonzales, SFSU; Moderator, Dr. Dawn Mabalon

Session 3: The Little Manila Foundation - A Progress Report
Facilitated by Elena Mangahas, Little Manila Foundation, Vince Reyes, Jim Hammett, and Jacqueline King, Urban Legacy

Sponsored by Cultural Awareness Program committee of San Joaquin Delta Community College with additional Support from APIASA and FANHS

For more information: log on to www.littlemanila.net or send email to: info@littlemanila.net