Removing a skill from your account will remove it from profiles and all places where it is being used.

The skills in green are for those Skills you have gained from prior Work experience, education and life For example, you can enter in 'Bilingual English/Spanish'

The skills in black are hard coded, you can't change them, but do not worry, it does not mean you have to use them or advertise them to employers, this area is just a skills bank for your knowledge...
