

Drug Screening Policy:

School of Radiologic Technology is performing a mandatory drug screening test of students prior to enrollment into the program. Failure to pass or a refusal will result in denial into the program. Students may have random drug screening during the two-year program based on the sponsoring hospitals Reasonable Suspicion Policy. Please see student handbook for more information.

Challenges to actions regarding the above policy may be addressed through the program's grievance procedure.

(Policy 1/04/21)